Pat,

Boy is my face red! I thought I had checked everything they could be listed in - you're one up on me. No I have not looked at the burial records, but you can bet I will as soon as I get off this board. I have the Mobile Co will of Robert Killcreas and I will give you the enough to get a >>>> birdseye view (a real puzzler) (It is dated 15 Oct 1804): "Know all men by these presents that I ROBERT KILLCREAS of Mobile District and previous of West Florida for and consideration of the natural love and affection I have and do bear unto the following named children of ANN THOMPSON with whom I have lived and cohabitated for several years part and for sundry other good causes and considerations are hereunto moving have given granted and confirmed and by these presents give grant and conform unto the following property, viz, to SARAH the eldest daughter .....and to her son WILLIAM.....she to take possession of .. her marriage, .....To ROBERT, the eldest son....., to my second son JAMES LEROY,.....to Patsey the second daughter, .....to Elizabeth the youngest daughter.....to the above mentioned ANN THOMPSON....15 Oct 1804 s/ROBERT KILLCREAS Witnesses: W BUFORD, JOHN BUFORD, WM BUFORD. (It appears to be the same family that you have) I will send you copies if interested. For sure this one is not a quick study. Pat what would we do without you on this board? I can never repay you for all the things you have contributed to my research. Incidentally, I have some more data coming from my Mississippi LONGMIRES and will shoot it on over.>>>> your way as soon as I receive if you still need.

Needless to say, I want ANYTHING you have on this family and especially interested in your sources. Hope you have some more descendants who are researching. Thanks again,
Julia in Mobile.

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

I wish to thank you for sending information on my early family (Reference fileG00 280) on Robert Gilcrease, alias Gilchrist (Kilcrease etc.). This information you sent to my cousin Julia Emanuel in Mobile. She in turn sent it to me.

Julia asked that I provide additional information for your files, so I'm enclosing the Killcreas and related families that I have been able to put together.

It appears that Robert first married Ester (Easter) Booth. They had a son William born Sept. 1780. Court records show Ester Boothe living in Claiborne County, Miss., Dec. 29, 1813.

I've found records where there was a William Kilcrease owning land in Claiborn County. The property was located next to a John Booth (1804). Could this John Booth be the father/brother of Easter? Would you by chance know anyone in Claiborn or Copiah counties that could provide any additional information?

*William, Son of Robert & Hester (1780)
He was born 1780 Sept
Hester married John Booth
(1813)*

So far I've found three descendants of Sarah (daughter of Robert and Ann (Clark) Thompson). Sarah married Aron Barlow. They had eight children. I have this record if you wish to have additional information.

I have a copy of Roberts Deed/Will. He signed it Robert Killcreas, however the Scottish spelling would be Gilchrist and Spanish the same or Gilcrease. I understand there is no K in Spanish?

Additional information can be found in a book "Abstracts Orphans Court Minutes Mobile County, Alabama 1813-1837" written by Clinton P. King and Meriem Allison Barlow. (Meriem's husband Arnold A Barlow is a descendant of Sarah Killcreas and Aron Barlow). I will make a copy of pertinent abstracts if you should need.

I'll close for now. If I can help you in any way please let me know. I hope this is not an imposition. Thanks.

Sincerely, Bob K.
Bobby Killcreas

P.S.

I also think there maybe a connection with Peter Gilcrease, card index Goo 279, only time and research will tell--Maybe others.

KILCREASES

It is believed that the first European country to employ "fixed" surnames was Ireland with a record of the death of Tighearnach Ua Cleirigh, lord of Aidhne, in the year 916. Surnames have originated in various ways. In the case of the surname Kilcrease this name is an anglicised form of the Gaelic surname Mac Giolla Christ which is found in both Ireland and Scotland. The surname Mac Giolla Christ is derived from the Gaelic meaning "son of the devotee of Christ". "Giolla Christ" was originally a proper name in its own right which followed the Gaelic custom of inserting "giolla" or "devotee" before the name of a saint or before the name of Christ. The Mac Giolla Christ sept of Ireland was found chiefly in Longford and in North Connacht.

The Scottish Mac Giolla Christ's were septs of the MacLachlan and Ogilvie clans. One of the earliest records of the name is that of an inscription found on the beautiful St. Martin's Cross in Iona which reads: A prayer for Gilchrist who made this cross. Other records include a dispute involving Gilchrist, the earl Mar, who built a priory in Monymusk circa 1200. Patrick Gilchrist, son of the count of Strivelyn and Kilschyn Gilcris of the county of Perth rendered homage in 1296. Adam fix (son of) Gilcris was juror on an inquisition in Stragavane in 1302. Other anglicised forms of the name include Kilchrist, Gilchrist, Kilcris, Christopher and Christie.

BLAZON OF ARMS : Argent; a lion passant sable; a chief azure; charged on the dexter with a cross pattee and on the sinister with a covered cup both or.

Translation : Argent, or white, symbolizes the Moon, and denotes Innocence.

CREST : The sun rising out of a cloud.

MOTTO : Mea Gloria Fides.

Translation : Fidelity is my Glory.
